Feng Shui is part of us....

Feng Shui involves studying the environment to create desired outcomes that you might not otherwise consider. Just as the subatomic particles that comprise us cannot be separated from the space, time and particles surrounding us, living beings cannot be isolated from the subtle energies of the environment in which we live in.

Travel Feng Shui-Overall

Travel is a kind of remedy for Feng shui that will rejuvenate a person's life journey. The destination is rather critical for different persons. If you are already equipped with 'kind' energies (based on your life reading), going to the right destination will help boost these energies further and create synergistic outcomes. If you equipped with 'unkind' energies (based on your life reading) then going to the right destination will help to reduce your unkind energies and burdens of life.

Winter born persons (Oct 9th to Feb 3rd)

If you are born in winter, you are a heavy Water element person. As such, you should travel south or southwest to help elevate your kind energies or reduce your unkind energies. Bring out a map and find out the venue of your birthplace and from there you can figure out where to go for your best locations to travel. Alternatively, you can use your country as a focal point, divide it into eight parts, and dictate where the south and southwest locations are.

Summer born persons (May 5th to August 7th)

If you are born in the hot summer, you are a Fire element person that requires the balancing agent of water and water represents the North sector. Find out your birthplace and travel north to harness your best possible energies. You can use your country as a focal point, divide it into four parts, and dictate where the North location is. Travel north if you need soul-searching, a sabbatical, or whenever you feel like getting away from your area. This is where you can reduce your unkind energies and harness the kind energies into your life.

Spring born persons (Feb 4th to May 5th)

Spring is heavy in Wood and Earth is what you need to fence off an excessive wood element. In this case northwest is the solution. Divide your country into eight parts and find out where the places that located in the Northwest and fly there! This way you can be assured to attract kind energies into your life.

Autumn born persons (August 8th to Oct 9th)

Autumn season is associated with the Metal element so a Wood element is required to rebalance such portfolio. Wood represents the direction of East. Bring out a map and find out the venue of your birthplace and from there you can figure out where to go for your best location to travel. In addition, you can use your country as a focal point, divide it into four parts, and dictate where the East sector is. Make sure you do follow such favorable location(s) to harness your best kind energies to bring back to your home or office.
